Graduate Workshop on Medieval Philosophical Logic
December 17 – 18, 2018

Monday, December 17
a.r.t.e.s. Graduate School, Aachener Str. 217, 3rd floor, room 3.A06 ("Skyfall")

10h45. Welcome

11h. Dr. Graziana Ciola (Los Angeles): "The Void and the Chimaera: Marsilius of Inghen on imaginabilia"

Lunch Break

13h. Aline Ramos (Montréal): "A Primer to John Buridan's Moral Logic"

14h. Asya Kopylova (Moscow): "Possibilia and temporalia in W. Ockham'"

15h. Robert Schneider (Cologne): "Dialectica – Logic and Metaphysics in Alcuin and Eurigena"

Attendance is open and free, registration is not required.
Organization: Guido J. Alt, M.A.
Contact: greyalt@uni-koeln.de

Tuesday, December 18
Classen-Kappelmann-Str. 24, 5th floor, room 5.09 ("Besprechungsraum")

10h. Bianca Bosman (Groningen): "The Curious Case of the Impossible Antecedent: changes in the grounding of logical validity after Abelard"

11h. Enrico Donato (Geneva): "Eternal Truths in Abelard"

Lunch Break

13h. Milo Crimi (Los Angeles): "Ockham's Elimination of the Modes of Signifying"

14h. Guido J. Alt (Cologne/Stockholm): "John Buridan on Truth and Complexly Signifiables"

Coffee Break

15h15. Joshua Mendelsohn (Chicago): "Robert Kilwardby's Logic of Natural Contingency"

Tomb relief depicting students at Bologna, about 1383. © The Royal Historical Society 2018